

What happens during an apprenticeship?

Learning from their Personal Tutor

- A dedicated Personal Tutor for every apprentice
- Regular reviews of apprentice's knowledge, skills & behaviours
- On-going assessment, coaching & mentoring
- Remote, face-to-face & online support
- Observation of work practices

Working with their Manager

- Close working relationship with Line Manager
- Regular skills & progress reviews for each apprentice

Thinking of new ideas & presenting them (subject to programme)

- Ways to improve ideas generation
- Capability & competence in job role
- Confidence building

Working in groups (subject to programme)

- Interactive, high-energy group work
- Peer-to-peer learning

Learning by themselves

- Remote learning
- Self-directed study & research
- Practical application on the job
- Using online resources (Bud)
- Project work (subject to programme)

Innovation in learning

- Online learning resources
- Building a portfolio of learning
- Interactive learning environment (Bud)

